15 Years of Holiness

Assisi, a small town in Italy, is famous for St. Francis and for St. Clare. Recently, another person has been added to these amazing saints: Carlo Acutis, a millennial teenager who will be canonized on April 27 this year. Carlo had only 15 years to develop his way to holiness and he did it! Born in 1991 in London to Italian parents, he completed his earthly Pilgrimage of Hope on October 12, 2006, in Monza, Italy, suffering from a very aggressive form of leukemia. Before his death, he asked his parents if he could be buried in Assisi where his beloved saint, St. Francis, is buried. Indeed, he was buried there, and now his body, which is in a glass coffin, is in the Church of Santa Maria Maggiore in Assisi, the very spot where St. Francis renounced his worldly possessions centuries ago. Last year, over one million people prayed at Carlo's tomb, where his body, clad in jeans, a sweatshirt and sneakers, lies in view. He was declared blessed or beatified in 2020.

For many young pilgrims, Carlo offers a relatable path to holiness. "Carlo is like the kids. He's a near-saint of our time, who can show teens that it's possible to love Jesus while being a regular youth" – said one of the pilgrims. Carlo's happy image, usually in a red polo shirt and carrying a backpack, is now as popular in souvenir shops as St. Francis is in his simple brown habit.

Both the Catholic Church and his family describe Carlo as an exceptionally devout but otherwise regular Italian boy, who is working miracles after his untimely death precisely by drawing youth to faith when most of his contemporaries are abandoning organized religion.

Carlo was born into a quite wealthy family, but his parents weren't practicing Catholics when he was born. Carlo's mother, Antonia Acutis, testified about him: "Carlo wasn't an alien, he was a normal person. But if it's illuminated by the light of Christ, a life becomes extraordinary." She stressed that one of her son's favorite phrases was: "Everyone is born an original, but many die photocopies."

Although Carlo was a normal boy, at a young age he developed a precocious interest in faith, such as wanting to enter every church to "say hi" to Jesus and Mary. Later, he started attending Mass, adoring the Blessed Sacrament and praying the Rosary daily – while also entertaining his friends with jokes who were less interested in religion.

Carlo's mother also testified that "Carlo was a witness, a silent witness through the value of friendship, through the value of generosity, helping his classmates in school, defending the teens who were bullied."

Carlo often helped the homeless and was uninterested in the trappings common for a wealthy child in Milan, one of Europe's fashion and business capitals. He asked his parents to donate to the poor what they would have spent for a second pair of sneakers for him, and he insisted that he wanted to teach catechism at his parish instead of going on skiing holidays at fancy resorts like his peers.

Fr. Enzo Fortunato from Rome said that there were many similarities between Carlo and St. Francis. "St. Francis left the churches and went to the squares to preach. Carlo Acutis prophetically realized that today the public squares are online, on the Web. That's where youth are, that's where people are, so he lived and brought the Gospel in those squares. That's one of the reasons why he will become the patron of the web, internet and social media."

Carlo was particularly devout to the Eucharist and wanted to share the Catholic belief that Jesus is literally present in it. Carlo created an online exhibit about miracles where the Eucharistic bread and wine became flesh and blood throughout the centuries. It's been used in thousands of parishes worldwide.

One fact speaks very loudly about his apostolic engagement. Carlo's parents employed a Brahmin immigrant from Mauritius, Rajesh Mohur, to work in their household. He and Carlo became friends. In time, after speaking with Carlo about Christianity, Rajesh asked to be baptized. A friend of Rajesh also converted and was baptized after meeting with Carlo and hearing him speak about the faith. The third person who received baptism because of the support of Carlo was Rajesh 's mother who came to visit her son from Mauritius.

We can learn more about Carlo Acutis when we see the new film, "Carlo Acutis: Roadmap to Reality." For three days, April 27-29, 2025, it will be shown in 945 theaters across the United States. Once the first 5,000 tickets are sold, the film has been guaranteed an additional three days in theaters. In the next week or so, we will be selling tickets for this movie in our narthex.

We, and especially the young, gained a new saint, a new supporter, a saint who lived his life to the fullest. Carlo Acutis enjoyed his 15 years of life not by collecting things for himself but by giving himself to others, inspired and strengthened by the Gospel.

St. Carlo Acutis, pray for us!

Fr. Mark Jurzyk

From Teenager to Saint: The Roadmap of Carlo Acutis

The Catholic Church is about to name the first saint who was a "Millennial!" And he is making a big splash! In an era where young people are often seen as distant from faith, Carlo Acutis gives us an example of a new path to reality and holiness in this digital world. Born in 1991 and raised in Milan, Italy, he will be canonized on Sunday, April 27, 2025.

He grew up as a typical teenager, playing soccer, video games, and the saxophone. His young faith blossomed alongside his deep love for the Eucharist as he attended Mass daily, making it central to his life. Carlo's use of technology to spread the Gospel and document Eucharistic miracles worldwide shows how technology can be a powerful tool for good and for evangelization.

Carlo passed away from leukemia at the age of 15, inspiring multitudes of people with his courage and faith. As a celebrated role model for young people, Carlo showed that holiness is achievable at any age. One of his famous quotes is, "To always be close to Jesus!" His life and words continue to inspire us to cultivate a close relationship with Jesus through prayer, the Eucharist, Confession, visiting holy sites, and helping others in need.

Just recently, I received a letter from the pastor in Crest Hill. Last year, in Phase II of our Targeted Restructuring Process, the parishes of St. Ambrose and St. Anne were united to form one new parish. Since then, the parish has entered a process of unification and renaming. He shared with me how the parishioners actively submitted recommendations for a new name for their parish. Originally, 90 names were submitted. After discernment through listening sessions and small groups, the selection was narrowed down to the top three names. Then, those three possibilities were given to me for my final choice. All three names were strong and worthy. However, after a time of prayer and reflection, one name stood out clearly for me… Saint Carlo Acutis!

By naming the newly united parish after him, we are not just honoring his memory but also encouraging parishioners to emulate his example of living faith boldly in today's world through the Eucharist. As we strive to pass on our faith to the next generations through catechesis, evangelization, and faith in action, this newly minted saint will hopefully inspire us, both now and into the future.

If you would like to learn more about Carlo Acutis, I encourage you to see the new film, "Carlo Acutis: Roadmap to Reality." For three days, April 27-29, 2025, it will be shown in 945 theaters across the United States. Once the first 5,000 tickets are sold, the film has been guaranteed an additional three days in theaters.

I saw clips of this film at a preview during the November meetings for the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops. I was fascinated by the life of Carlo Acutis and his impact on the youth of today. I also learned that all proceeds from this film will benefit causes for the youth, support the further spread of the Gospel, and help fund future National Eucharistic Congresses.

I invite you to consider seeing this movie as an individual, as a family, as a youth group, and/or as a parish outing. This is a great opportunity for us to learn more about a young saint and help evangelize others by inviting them to see it. You can purchase tickets through a pre-sale program. Locations and advance ticket sales are now available at www.carloacutisfilm.com. Even if you cannot see the movie right now, I urge you to visit this website, watch the trailer, and share it with others!

Before dying from leukemia, Carlo said, "Do not be afraid because with the Incarnation of Jesus, death becomes life, and there's no need to escape: in eternal life, something extraordinary awaits us." These saintly words highlight Carlo's deep faith in Jesus and encourage us on the way to holiness.

On Sunday, April 27, 2025, with fervent devotion and enthusiastic hope, please join me and the universal Catholic Church – no matter what your age – in exclaiming, "Saint Carlo Acutis, pray for us!" †

Our Lady of Fatima wishes to visit your Home

Last year, 2024, 64 families of our parish welcomed Our Lady of Fatima into their homes. How awesome to hear each of the family testify to the spiritual peace, love and loving comfort that they felt as they prayed the Rosary each night for a week.

So again, the Legion of Mary invites you, especially those with young children, empty nesters, single parents, to spend a week with Mary in your home. Experience her presence. Our Mother wishes to be a part of your prayer life and to bring you closer to her Son, Jesus.

We will provide the prayer packet you will need.

Please email the Parish Office at corpuschristicc@sbcglobal.net or leave a message 630-483-1673 to schedule a date. You can also contact Letty Dino at ldino518@gmail.com
Our Lady is waiting for you!

Here are the latest comments from our host families:

"There is a comforting peace in the house when Mary visits. We ask for help to pray for my children."

"We love having Mary in our house. We think she likes it here because she looks pleased when we sit and pray with her. Thank you Mary and to the women who bring her to us."

"We have such peace and love when the Blessed Mother is in our home. Thank you Mother, for continuing to bless us."

"Our Lady often speaks of peace in her messages and her presence in our home brought us peace, comfort and calm which I truly appreciated and experienced. Please pray for the efforts of all heavenly prophets, messengers, mystics and ministers of the truth. May the Holy Spirit inspire us all to recognize His message."

"Once again, as always, Mother Mary brought peace and comfort to me."
