Merry Christmas, Brothers and Sisters!

In Luke's Gospel, we read that at Jesus' birth in Bethlehem there was a multitude of angels praising God and saying: "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests." We repeat these words at Christmas as we sing in a popular carol: "Gloria in excelsis deo." The very same words begin the "Gloria" hymn which we sing during Sunday Masses and feasts.

Angels sing of the joy of such great a gift of love. They proclaim with joy this love which is the very same love in which they were created. Now, they guide others - magi, shepherds, and us the readers of the Gospel - to the Savior's self-emptied glory. This is the glory in which the world was created and is now even becoming "a new creation."

Can this magnificent glory and the wonders it evokes possibly enter into our narrowly closed hearts? Yes! – because the mystery of this breathtaking self-emptying love of God, though its conception is miraculous, comes with none of the fanfare of so mighty a miracle. It is hid and is manifested in the charm and intimate life of a family. God made it possible in the lowly birth of His Son as a baby for us to accept this mystery.

Brothers and Sisters, may the mystery of Jesus' birth – of God with us – penetrate our hearts with great intensity. May we exclaim together with the angels a joyful "Glory", kneel down together with the shepherds, and give homage together with the magi. Why? Because the love of our God, our Father in heaven, was manifested in such an amazing way!

May the Newborn Jesus bless you and your family.

Merry Christmas!

Fr. Mark Jurzyk

Christmas

DECEMBER 25, 2022

LIGHT AND LIFE

The four Gospel portraits of Jesus take very different approaches to his origins. Mark has no record of Jesus' ancestry, except for his connection to John the Baptist. Matthew traces his genealogy back to Abraham; Luke even farther back, to Adam. The Gospel of John outdoes them all, tracing Jesus' origins back to the time before time, before the world was created! Jesus is the eternal Word of God. The Greek term for "Word" is logos, and it is a word with deep implications. The logos exists before creation, because all of creation came to be through the logos and, in turn, the logos will become the light of all it has created. This is what makes Christmas a season light and life. May our lives radiate this light, reflecting the life-giving Word-made-Flesh. Let our discipleship truly and fully make incarnate once again the Word-in-flesh whom we celebrate and adore: Jesus Christ, our Lord!

THE SEASON OF LIGHT

It is customary to celebrate Christmas with lights of all sorts. This even happens in the southern hemisphere, where people aren't experiencing the shorter, darker days of northern climates. From little twinkles on Christmas trees to the glow of candles in church, Christmas is a celebration of the light born today in God's Word-made-flesh. As with other types of lights, the Christ-light takes on different forms. Sometimes its light is direct, while at other times it is a reflection. The lights of Christmas, like Jesus the Light of the world, offer comfort, ease fears, show us the way, and help us to see that God is present here. While we believe that Jesus is the light that no darkness can overcome, it can seem at times it seems as though the gloom around us is overcoming the light. We all are familiar with darkness's different forms that seem to bombard us daily, hourly—minute by minute, if we allow them to. And yet . . .

THIS LITTLE LIGHT OF MINE

The relentless daily reports of darkness can easily lead us not to see the many glimmers of light around us. We who follow the Christ-light must always be on alert for signs of that light around us. Likewise, we who have that Christ-light in us must let it shine forth. No matter how little we think our light may be, we must recall that it is the light of Christ we bear within us. Like John the Baptist in today's Gospel passage, we are meant to testify to the power of light, to help others see glimpses of God-with-us. Our actions must bear good news, they must announce glad tidings. Even small deeds of light can shine brightly, giving birth to Jesus once again each day. On Christmas day and every day we are called to be people of hope, messengers of peace who offer comfort and make God's glory known. Let the light of Christ in your life be one of the season's brightest!
