CATHOLIC CHURCH

Transfigured and Transformed

On the second Sunday of Lent, we hear the story of a hiking trip of Jesus and three of his disciples. They went up Mount Tabor, but not to admire the mountain or the view from this place. Jesus led the Apostles there to see something more beautiful than even the most amazing scenery in the world: the glory of God.

As we read: Jesus “was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light.” In addition to this extraordinary and difficult-to-describe situation - St. Matthew uses the comparison “like,” which testifies to the inadequacy of the human language - the disciples heard the voice saying: “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.” It left no doubt about the nature of Jesus, who he really is. He is not just a holy man, he is not just a prophet, he is not a good teacher, just a rabbi – He is the real Son of God, fully human but also fully divine. His incarnation, his teaching and later, his redemptive suffering is the final and ultimate revelation of God to His children. This is the utmost act of love, love that is incomparable to anything else in the visible world and invisible world.

This is the basis for the powerful authority of Jesus in everything he taught mankind. It explains why many people “were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes” (Mark 1:22) and even the guards of the temple admitted that “never before has anyone spoken like this one” (John 7:46).

Who do we see in Jesus? Maybe we recognize Him as merely a good man with very interesting teachings that could be helpful in bringing up our children and grandchildren and nobody else. Or maybe we keep Him far away from our life and our heart. We instead recognize the authority of the police, the civil administration and celebrities, but we neglect the message of life and love of God.

Lent invites us first to answer these questions - to fully seek out our relationship with Jesus as Divine Savior and Divine Teacher. Once we turn our hearts and minds to Him, we will be transformed and prepared to correctly determine how to live, how to shape our daily activities and relations with other people. In this way, we will not be left to our subjective and sometimes chaotic judgment of ourselves and others, but our life can rely on the foundation laid by God Himself for He alone will be our sure guide.

In Christ,

Fr. Mark Jurzyk

LENTEN REGULATIONS

1. Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.
2. Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 years of age is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
3. On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.
4. To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.
5. Lent is the principal season of penance in the Christian year. All of the faithful are strongly urged to develop and follow a program of voluntary self-denial (in addition to following the Lenten regulations), serious prayer, and a performance of works of charity and mercy.

Santa Ana Mission

During Lent, Corpus Christi will collect donations for the mission of Santa Ana in La Libertad, Honduras. The mission provides education, housing, and spiritual support for children and teens, in an area where most people live on $2.50 a day or less. Many children must work to provide basic needs for their families. Clean water is one of the greatest needs. Please be as generous as you can be.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society

SVdP will be collecting free will donations for Easter Dinners, the weekend of March 14-15. It will be benefiting local families in partnership again with Wayne Township Food Pantry.

If you are in need of help, please call our confidential hotline number: 331-229-9069. We welcome new members!

The Madonna della Croce rosary group meets every first Tuesday of the month at 10:30 am to pray the rosary in church.

Our Lady of Fatima wishes to visit your Home

Thank you to the parish families who have welcomed our Lady of Fatima into their homes. We believe that Mary chooses the homes she wants to visit especially when we ask families who have never heard of hosting her. What does it take to host her? Just spend minutes of prayers with her in a special area in your home, either alone, with family and/or friends. We provide the prayer packets to assist you and give you rosaries, prayer cards, blessed medals that you can use.

The Legion of Mary specially calls on those with young children, empty nesters, single parents, to spend a week with Mary in your home and to experience her presence. Our Mother wishes to be a part of your prayer life and to bring you closer to her Son, Jesus.

Please email the Parish Office at Corpuschristiccs@gmail.com or leave a message 630-483-1673 to schedule a date. You can also contact Letty Dino at ldino518@gmail.com. Our Lady is waiting for you!

Do you want to know more about the works of the Legion of Mary? It is an association of lay Catholics through Corpus Christi Pastor Father Mark Jurzyk, and under the powerful leadership of Mary Immaculate, Mediatrix of all Graces, who is fair as the moon, bright as the sun, terrible as an army set in battle array, formed themselves into service in the spiritual warfare against the world and its evil powers to bring everyone to her beloved Son, Jesus. We meet every Wednesday at 7 pm in Marian Hall.

Contact Letty at ldino518@gmail.com for more information or leave your number at the Parish Office so we can contact you.
