God's Mercy

*"On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon the souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy."
(Jesus to Saint Faustina Kowalska. Diary, paragraph #699)*

Jesus, I Trust in You!

The Feast of Mercy - A Day of Extraordinary Grace

The First Sunday after Easter

In a series of revelations to Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska in the 1930s, our Lord repeatedly called for the celebration of the Feast of Mercy on the first Sunday after Easter. He promised an ocean of graces to be poured upon the world. Today, we know this feast as Divine Mercy Sunday, named by St. John Paul II at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000.

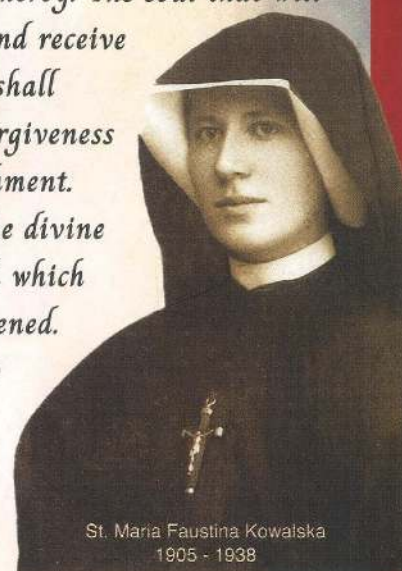

"I desire that the first Sunday after Easter be the Feast of Mercy" (299).

Every family needs God's mercy. Lenten prayers, fasts, alms giving, and good deeds afford us the opportunity to prepare well for extraordinary graces on Divine Mercy Sunday.

"No soul that has called upon My mercy has ever been disappointed or brought to shame" (1541).

Jesus to St. Faustina:

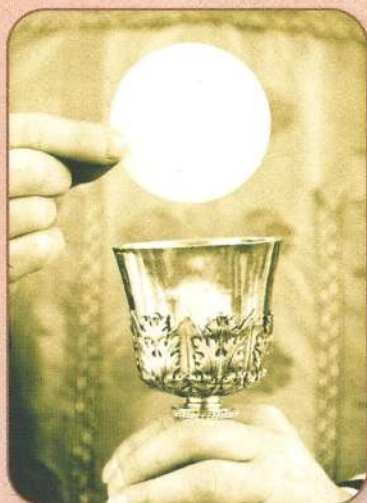

"My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet" (699).

St. Maria Faustina Kowalska
1905 - 1938

"Ordinarily, only the sacrament of Baptism effects in the soul the 'complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.' Reception of the Eucharist in a state of grace ordinarily remits only venial sin, while strengthening the soul against both venial and mortal sin (Catechism, 1394-1395). But on Mercy Sunday reception of Holy Communion worthily and with trust in God's Mercy pours out upon the soul a complete renewal of baptismal grace." - Rev. Ignacy Rozycki, STD, Former Member of the Holy See's International Theological Commission

Turn to the Lord with trust for all of your needs, spiritual as well as temporal. Ask for much and join the hundreds of thousands that have received hope, healing and answers to many prayers on this special day. Rejoice in the Resurrection. Rejoice in God's Mercy.

How to Receive the Graces of Divine Mercy Sunday

To receive these graces, the only condition is to receive Holy Communion worthily on Divine Mercy Sunday (or the Vigil celebration) by making a good confession beforehand and staying in the state of grace and trusting in His Divine Mercy.

By these conditions, our Lord is emphasizing the value of confession and Holy Communion as miracles of mercy. The Eucharist is Jesus, Himself, the Living God, longing to pour Himself as Mercy into our hearts.

In addition, if we want to receive mercy we must be merciful. Our Lord told St. Faustina:

"Yes, the first Sunday after Easter is the Feast of Mercy, but there must also be acts of mercy" (742).

Pope Leo XIV reminds the faithful that on Saturday, April 11, a Prayer Vigil for Peace will be celebrated in St. Peter's Basilica, and that everyone, both in person or following from home, is invited to join. The Vigil will take place at 6 pm (11 am CDT) Rome time and will be presided over by the Holy Father.

Archbishop Coakley Invites All to Join Pope Leo XIV's Vigil for Peace in Midst of Threats of Increased Military Action in Iran

With the threat of increased military action, including the targeting of civilian infrastructure in Iran, Archbishop Coakley underscored Pope Leo XIV's appeals during Holy Week and Easter for peace.

WASHINGTON - "I call on President Trump to step back from the precipice of war and negotiate a just settlement for the sake of peace and before more lives are lost," said Archbishop Paul S. Coakley, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops. With the threat of increased military action, including the targeting of civilian infrastructure in Iran, Archbishop Coakley underscored Pope Leo XIV's appeals during Holy Week and Easter for peace.

Archbishop Coakley's full statement follows:

"The threat of destroying a whole civilization and the intentional targeting of civilian infrastructure cannot be morally justified. There are other ways to resolve conflict between peoples. I call on President Trump to step back from the precipice of war and negotiate a just settlement for the sake of peace and before more lives are lost.

"After his resurrection, Jesus appeared to his disciples in Jerusalem, and his first words were 'Peace be with you.' As the Holy Father, in his Urbi et Orbi message on Easter reflected, the peace that 'Jesus gives us is not a peace that merely silences the weapons, but one that touches and transforms the heart of each of us! Let us make heard the cry for peace that springs from our hearts!'

"Pope Leo has invited everyone to join him in a prayer vigil for peace on Saturday, April 11. I make a special plea to my brother bishops, the priests, the laity, and all people yearning for true peace to join the Holy Father's Vigil for Peace, whether virtually, or in parishes, chapels, or before the Lord present in the quiet of their hearts to join with our Holy Father as we pray for peace in our world.

Happy Easter! He is Risen!

Thank you to all our volunteers, parishioners and friends who helped to coordinate and participated in our Holy Week and Easter Masses and liturgies. It was inspiring to see so many people attending these Masses and services and worshipping together. We are especially grateful to our deacons Tom Thiltgen, Andrew Jalove and Phil Leonard and Liturgical Chief Stewards and all our liturgical ministers, sacristans, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, lectors, host greeters, and altar servers. Our hearts and voices were lifted in a beautiful chorus of praise with the help of our cantors, choir and musicians under the direction of Agata Olszakowska. Denise Palash and also our outdoor decorating team made our church and grounds beautiful! We appreciate the Knights of Columbus' Honor Guard and CCW, and the Holy Thursday foot washes and Holy Oil bearers for participating in the Holy Thursday Mass, procession and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Thank you also to Sara Glas and the OCIA team for preparing the catechumens and candidates to receive the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil, Elizabeth Mazur for coordinating our liturgies, and to our parish staff for their behind-the-scenes work. Our Corpus Christi parish community is very grateful to all of you for helping all of us to experience the holiness and beauty of Holy Week and Easter as we continue to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ during this Easter Season. Thank you!

In Our Risen Lord,
Fr. Mark Jurzyk

Our Lady of Fatima wishes to visit your Home

Thank you to the parish families who have welcomed our Lady of Fatima into their homes. We believe that Mary chooses the homes she wants to visit especially when we ask families who have never heard of hosting her. What does it take to host her? Just spend minutes of prayers with her in a special area in your home, either alone, with family and/or friends. We provide the prayer packets to assist you and give you rosaries, prayer cards, blessed medals that you can use.

The Legion of Mary specially calls on those with young children, empty nesters, single parents, to spend a week with Mary in your home and to experience her presence. Our Mother wishes to be a part of your prayer life and to bring you closer to her Son, Jesus.

Please email the Parish Office at Corpuschristiccs@gmail.com or leave a message 630-483-1673 to schedule a date. You can also contact Letty Dino at ldino518@gmail.com. Our Lady is waiting for you!

Do you want to know more about the works of the Legion of Mary? It is an association of lay Catholics through Corpus Christi Pastor Father Mark Jurzyk, and under the powerful leadership of Mary Immaculate, Mediatrix of all Graces, who is fair as the moon, bright as the sun, terrible as an army set in battle array, formed themselves into service in the spiritual warfare against the world and its evil powers to bring everyone to her beloved Son, Jesus. We meet every Wednesday at 7 pm in Marian Hall.

Contact Letty at ldino518@gmail.com for more information or leave your number at the Parish Office so we can contact you.

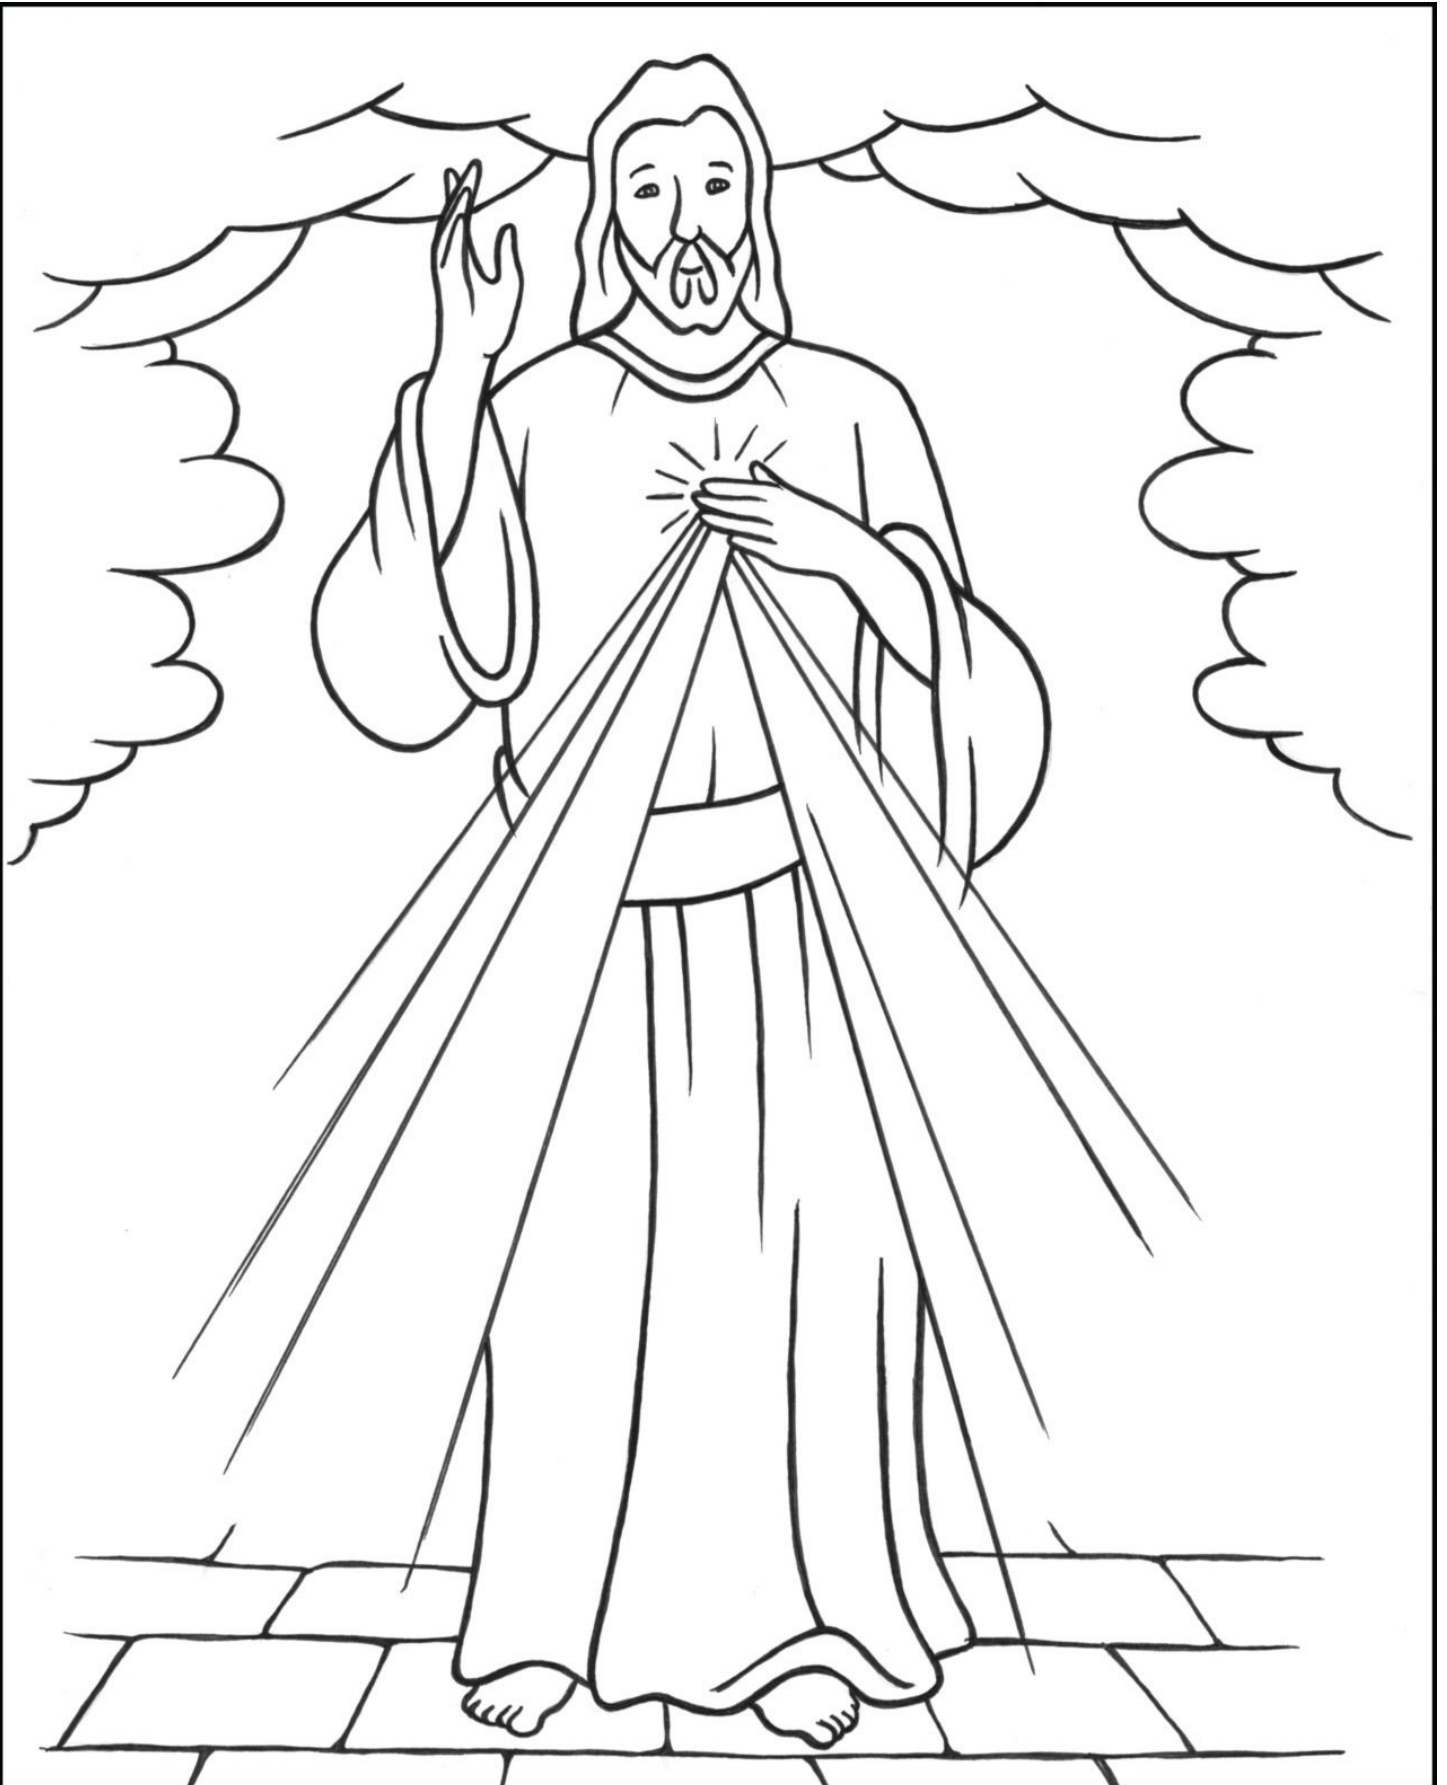

Pledge your gift to the 2026 CMAA

The Diocese of Joliet invites all parishioners to support the 2026 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA). Together, we can make a profound difference. The appeal is a powerful way to put our faith into action.

This year's theme is Beyond all Expectations: Faith that Elevates! When we care for those in need, we answer this call. Our parish joins with other parishes to serve the vulnerable, grow children in faith, and strengthen vocations. We cannot foster these ministries alone. This is a diocese-wide effort.

We receive 70% of any amount raised over our goal to reinvest in our parish.

Please prayerfully consider your gift and help our parish reach its $GOAL. Complete and return a pledge envelope in church today. Thank you for your support! Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal 2026
