Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love.

This Sunday, May 19, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Descent of the Holy Spirit. This feast is also known as Pentecost - this word comes from the Greek word “Pentecoste” – meaning “the fiftieth”. Indeed, Sunday of the Descent of the Holy Spirit is celebrated on the 50th day (the seventh Sunday) from Easter Sunday. Throughout this entire time we, the Church, celebrated with a special joy Jesus’ resurrection, his appearances, his Ascension to the Father in heaven, and finally, Pentecost. With the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, Christ’s Paschal Mystery was brought to completion.

St. Thomas Aquinas says that the Holy Spirit interiorly perfects our spirit, communicating to it a new dynamism so that it refrains from evil, not simply out of fear of punishment, but for love. “The first gift of love is love itself, and all the other gifts emanate from this supreme gift, as from their source. Therefore, the Gift of love of God is the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit does not give himself to us without pouring charity into our hearts” (Luis Maria Martinez).

The extraordinary meaning of the Easter season was highlighted by some elements of the Church’s liturgy: white vestments of the priests and deacons, lit Paschal Candle that symbolizes the Resurrected Jesus, and the statue of the Resurrected Jesus on the left side of our church’s sanctuary. These and other elements of the Easter celebrations and art are intended to draw our attention to the most important and vital element of our faith: Christ saved us by His offering on the cross, conquered death and is resurrected and opened for us the gate to eternal life in heaven.

On Monday, after Pentecost Sunday, we will return to our ordinary occupations: work, schools, vacations, other activities, and also our Sunday Masses in the Ordinary liturgical season. But there will be nothing ordinary in our celebrations. The Holy Spirit will stay with us. The more we call upon Him the more powerfully He will be present in our life - Sunday after Sunday, week after week.

In Christ,

Fr. Mark Jurzyk

Stop Assisted Suicide

A Better Way Forward – A Message from the Catholic Bishops of Illinois

Legislation has been introduced to legalize assisted suicide in Illinois. SB 3499 makes it legal for a physician to prescribe an array of lethal drugs to a person diagnosed with a terminal disease who requests to end his or her life. The Catholic Bishops of Illinois oppose this legislation; there is a better way forward for our state.

Assisted suicide disregards the Hippocratic Oath, “Do No Harm,” and sends the wrong message about the role of medical professionals. We cannot say it any better than the American Medical Association: “Physician assisted suicide is fundamentally incompatible with the physician’s role as healer, would be difficult or impossible to control, and would provide serious societal risks.”

This legislation brings a range of possible abuses. It should alarm us that in states with legalized assisted suicide there are documented cases of people being offered inexpensive lethal drugs to end their life rather than being provided more costly treatment. The poor and those with disabilities are particularly in jeopardy because they are the most vulnerable to abuses. Every major national organization that represents people with disabilities is opposed to assisted suicide.

In Oregon, where assisted suicide has been legal since 1997, data show that pain is not among the top five reasons why a person wants to end their life. Loss of autonomy, feelings of being a burden and being less able to engage in activities that make life enjoyable are most often cited as reasons for choosing assisted suicide. A better way forward is to expand mental health coverage and strengthen social supports such as community programs to help those dealing with depression and feelings of hopelessness.

No one wants to suffer or experience a loved one’s suffering. Fortunately, there are effective ways to alleviate suffering or make a person more comfortable at the end of life through palliative care. This relatively new specialty area of medicine cares for the whole person — physically, emotionally, socially, and spiritually — to relieve symptoms and stress that often accompany serious illness or side effects of treatment. A better way forward is to expand the number of palliative care locations and services in all areas of Illinois.

RESOURCES FROM THE CATHOLIC CONFERENCE OF ILLINOIS

Assisted suicide is not a compassionate solution for those who suffer. There is a better way forward that offers compassionate care and compassionate choices.
