Look Up at the Starry Night

Summer is strikingly beautiful: long days; plants and trees endowing us with their joyful, fresh colors, and warm nights that invite us to skip watching TV and instead, to look at the stars and the limitless universe. Our time is so occupied and passing by so quickly that even during the summer it is not easy to take a break from work and daily errands. But let's succumb to the beauty of the starry sky and allow ourselves to be amazed by the multitude of celestial objects and the grandeur of the universe.

I suspect that the famous German philosopher Immanuel Kant (d. 1804) must have been looking at stars with awe quite frequently since he left a powerful reflection about the universe. He spent his entire life in the town of Königsberg, Poland, later Germany, now Russia. On his grave, there is an inscription that is a direct quote from his book, Critique of Practical Reason. In English it reads:

“Two things fill the mind with ever new and increasing admiration and reverence, the more often and more steadily one reflects on them: the starry heavens above me and the moral law within me.”

Although Kant was a genius, he made fundamental mistakes. His philosophy, paradoxically against his intentions, led to moral liberalism. But Kant's reflection above, as simple as it is, is stunning. Truly, there is nothing more magnificent in the universe than the universe itself and the human being with his or her moral code. One can even understand his statement not as two separate extraordinary things that he is amazed at but as closely connected things. We could read Kant's words in this way: if we are so amazed, and rightly so by the grandeur of the stars, how amazing then must be the moral law that is within us. The existence of moral law greatly exceeds the unmeasurable vastness of the universe! This is the probable emphasis which Kant wanted to present.

But let's put aside for now the moral code and focus on the universe itself. On a very dark and clear night, we can see various constellations of stars, planets, comets, meteors, etc. We can also see the spectacular Milky Way, that is our galaxy seen from the inside, where our planet is located. To realize the vastness of all this, let's remind ourselves that there are 200 billion to 2 trillion galaxies in the observable universe, and there are billions of stars in every galaxy – an unimaginable number! All of this came out of nothing, by the creative will of an amazing person, a Triune God.

The moment of creation, point zero, is supported by the Big Bang theory -- a physical theory that describes how the universe expanded from a primordial state of high density and temperature. It was first proposed as a physical theory in 1927 by a Roman Catholic priest and physicist Georges Lemaitre. He suggested the universe emerged from a "primeval atom". Two years later, Edwin Hubble independently published similar findings. Because Hubble wrote in English not in French as Fr. Lemaitre, Hubble's finding was more known worldwide and was named after him – the Hubble law. However, a few years ago the International Astronomical Union corrected the omission and changed the name of the Hubble law to Hubble-Lemaitre law.

Fr. Georges Lemaitre was a professor at the Catholic University of Leuven in Belgium. His work is excellent proof that there is no contradiction between science and faith. Although science and faith use different premises, they lead to the same truth, and there can only be one truth.

Who knows if Kant, admiring the starry summer night, was not inspired by the well-known Psalm 8:

Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory in the heavens. When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is mankind that you are mindful of them, human beings that you care for them?

In Christ,

Fr. Mark Jurzyk

ROUTES

- > ☐  Marian Route
- > ☐  St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Route
- > ☐  St. Junipero Serra Route
- > ☐  St. Juan Diego Route

During this Eucharistic Revival, we are called to walk with Jesus. On a national level, groups of young adults will be walking thousands of miles, and portions of these miles will involve processions with our Eucharistic Lord Jesus, towards the Eucharistic Congress to be held in July this year 2024 in Indianapolis. A small, dedicated group of young adults – “Perpetual Pilgrims” – will make the full journey to Indianapolis, traveling full-time from May 2024 until July walking a total of 6,500+ miles over these four routes. They will be led by clergy and followed by a support van. Our Perpetual Pilgrims will rely on the biblical hospitality of local hosts, including lay families, parishes, religious orders, schools, and shrines along the way.

Those who meet up with the Pilgrimage and walk with them for any portion of the four routes (see above) — the Marian route, the Seton route, the Juan Diego route, or the Serra route — are part of our Eucharistic Caravan. Then, on July 16, 2024, all four branches of this historic Pilgrimage will converge in Indianapolis for the 10th National Eucharistic Congress—a milestone within the Revival and a historic moment for the Church in the U.S. The reinstitution of this legacy will gather our Catholic family in Indianapolis for a transformative experience that will bear fruit for generations to come. If you are able, JOIN US AS WE RECONSECRATE THE HEART OF OUR NATION! Jesus walks with us, carrying and caring for us as we journey together towards eternal life with and in Him. He is our Paschal Lamb, and we have a strong Protector in Him! So wherever you are on life's pilgrimage: look around, Jesus is walking with you, ahead of you, to your right, to your left, above and beneath you, and behind you: He's got your back, too! Shalom and deep joy and good health for all!

Stop Assisted Suicide

A Better Way Forward – A Message from the Catholic Bishops of Illinois

Legislation has been introduced to legalize assisted suicide in Illinois. SB 3499 makes it legal for a physician to prescribe an array of lethal drugs to a person diagnosed with a terminal disease who requests to end his or her life. The Catholic Bishops of Illinois oppose this legislation; there is a better way forward for our state.

Assisted suicide disregards the Hippocratic Oath, “Do No Harm,” and sends the wrong message about the role of medical professionals. We cannot say it any better than the American Medical Association: “Physician assisted suicide is fundamentally incompatible with the physician’s role as healer, would be difficult or impossible to control, and would provide serious societal risks.”

This legislation brings a range of possible abuses. It should alarm us that in states with legalized assisted suicide there are documented cases of people being offered inexpensive lethal drugs to end their life rather than being provided more costly treatment. The poor and those with disabilities are particularly in jeopardy because they are the most vulnerable to abuses. Every major national organization that represents people with disabilities is opposed to assisted suicide.

In Oregon, where assisted suicide has been legal since 1997, data show that pain is not among the top five reasons why a person wants to end their life. Loss of autonomy, feelings of being a burden and being less able to engage in activities that make life enjoyable are most often cited as reasons for choosing assisted suicide. A better way forward is to expand mental health coverage and strengthen social supports such as community programs to help those dealing with depression and feelings of hopelessness.

No one wants to suffer or experience a loved one’s suffering. Fortunately, there are effective ways to alleviate suffering or make a person more comfortable at the end of life through palliative care. This relatively new specialty area of medicine cares for the whole person — physically, emotionally, socially, and spiritually — to relieve symptoms and stress that often accompany serious illness or side effects of treatment. A better way forward is to expand the number of palliative care locations and services in all areas of Illinois.

RESOURCES FROM THE CATHOLIC CONFERENCE OF ILLINOIS

Assisted suicide is not a compassionate solution for those who suffer. There is a better way forward that offers compassionate care and compassionate choices.

Our Lady of Fatima wishes to visit your Home

Would you like the Blessed Mother of God come to your home for a week's visit?

The Legion of Mary of Corpus Christi encourages families, especially those with young children, empty nesters, single parents, everyone, to spend some time with Mary. We will provide a prayer packet to help you. Please contact the Parish Office at corpuschristicc@sbcglobal.net or leave a message at 312-237-6448. We will be glad to answer any questions and provide you with more details. Our Blessed Mother has been joyously received by our parishioners since January 27, 2024. If you wish her to come and stay in your house for a week, please send a message to Letty Dino at ldino518@gmail.com or call the parish number at 630-483-1673 to schedule your preferred date.

We share with everyone the many wonderful comments that our host families told us regarding their experiences with the visit of Our Lady of Fatima in their homes.

"It was a nice experience for the whole family. She brought us very peaceful and prayerful feelings. We asked for blessings and safe travels for our daughter who lives out of state. We also asked that our family continue to receive good health."

"Having our Lady in the home was a beautiful experience. We invited visitors during the week she was with us. My newly married daughter returned from her honeymoon came and we suggested that she and her husband say a prayer together for their new life.

We also asked that more young people return to the Catholic Church so that as they grow in faith, they become less anxious about their future."

"My workweek was covered with blessings during her visit. She protected me throughout the week from spiritual attacks of anxiety, and I received safety favors from work. I pray that Our Mother will take care of my daughter who doesn't go to Church and who is dating a boy with no faith life. We asked that her heart softens so that she can have a future of joy, peace, love and faith."

Do you want to know more about the works of the Legion of Mary? It is an association of lay Catholics through Corpus Christi Pastor Father Mark Jurzyk, and under the powerful leadership of Mary Immaculate, Mediatrix of all Graces, who is fair as the moon, bright as the sun, terrible as an army set in battle array, formed themselves into service in the spiritual warfare against the world and its evil powers to bring everyone to her beloved Son, Jesus. We meet every Wednesday at 7 pm in Marian Hall.

As members, we unite ourselves by starting our meetings with the rosary, stand for the Legion's Catena Prayers during midmeeting, and end with the Closing prayer for the beautification of the Founder of the Legion Frank Duff. Trusting fully in Mary's guidance, we plan and organize corporal and spiritual acts of mercy to carry out our promise to be instruments of Mary's desire to fulfill God's plan. If you have this kind of calling, please don't hesitate to join us.

Contact Letty at ldino518@gmail.com for more information or leave your number at the Parish Office so we can contact you.
