RESPECT LIFE SUNDAY

The Pastor's Corner

Be Christian Every Day and Every Way

I have repeated many times that as Christians, we are called to testify about Jesus, not only in the church but every day and on every occasion: at home, at work, while on vacation, with family members, friends, neighbors, and encountering strangers. I try to practice this, and my trip to Poland last week was no different. There were several reasons for the trip. I visited my father for his 91st birthday. I participated in the celebration of 60th anniversary of my public high school. I gave spiritual presentations and homilies for three days, and a long liturgical music workshop in the monastery. Finally, I made a pilgrimage to Rome for the Jubilee Year. What a restful vacation!

The 60th school anniversary consisted of three events: a special concert in the city's concert hall, a reception in the high school, and a dance. The following week, I presided at a Mass for high school students, teachers, parents, and visitors. The reception was scheduled from 6 pm until 2 am, and I planned to be there at the latest until 11 pm. Plans are only plans, and I returned home well after 2 am. The reception gathered nearly 600 people.

Since I do not dance, I spent all this time with people I knew from high school. In fact, I had more conversations with those I saw the very first time in my life, including current teachers.

Since I was in a clerical suit and easily recognizable, many people approached me and shared their opinions with me regarding the political situation and religious matters. Some of them were atheists, some former Catholics, some traditional Catholics, and some devout Catholics. I tried my best to address their concerns and complaints in a most fruitful way. Some of them who were highly educated presented very simplistic points of view, occasionally married with crippled logic. One can only imagine how much it cost me to properly converse with them. On the one hand, I tried to be delicate and on the other hand, persistent and clear. I used the best of my knowledge, skills, and missionary expertise. The rest was in the hands of God. Some of these conversations were very personal. I was there not for my personal pleasure and for sentimental or culinary reasons. I was there to represent the Catholic Church, to be visible, and to stimulate people's reflection by my very presence. It was not a restful evening for me – lasting over six hours. But I was very happy-- like a person pleased with a job well done -- for completing a project and for doing something good. I knew well before these three events for school anniversary that my plan to actively participate in these events was an inspiration from above.

In the same way, I encourage you not to be shy, indifferent or wait for others to do something. If one is open for something good, God himself will work in and through us.

Equally important was my short pilgrimage to Rome.

Since I was in Poland, I couldn't resist flying there in the Jubilee Year. I have spoken many times about the Jubilee Year, about the graces connected with it, about plenary indulgence, and our church as a Jubilee Year Pilgrimage church. Maybe you remember when I was joking that in order to receive a plenary indulgence we can either travel to Rome or visit our church and that the second option will cost us much less. As a pastor of such a privileged Holy Year church, I personally wanted to visit the St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, kneel at the graves of the Apostles -- St. Peter and St. Paul -- and pass through the original Holy Doors there. I passed through the replica of the Holy Doors in our church at the beginning of the Jubilee Year with you and later during every Thursday evening Mass. Now the time came to do so in Rome as your pastor, and do so on behalf of all parishioners of Corpus Christi. Afterward, I celebrated the Mass at the Basilica of St. John the Apostle in Rome and at the grave of St. John Paul II at St. Peter's Basilica praying for all of you. I prayed for all those who are strong and those who are weak, for the well and the sick, for your children and grandchildren, for those who are growing in faith and those whose are doubting. I presented all your intentions.

Once again, I invite you to take advantage of the graces offered in the Jubilee Year by visiting our church or visiting ... Rome, accompanied by fulfilling all necessary conditions, including a sacramental confession.

Finally, the highlight of the celebration of the Jubilee Year will be here at Corpus Christi with a special celebrant. Bishop Ronald Hicks will preside at the bilingual Jubilee Mass and give the homily on October 19 at 10 am.

Hoping to see you soon. God bless you.

Corpus Christi Church Presents:

Who am I to Judge? 8-Week Study Program

By Edward Sri

How do we talk about morality in a world that no longer believes in truth? What is "right" and "wrong"? Is what's right for you right for me? Is there a right and wrong for everyone, all the time? These are difficult questions to discuss in our culture. We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her own morality—that there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. This study program gives us an important key to respond effectively to relativism—a Catholic moral worldview.

Learn how Catholic morality is all about love, how making a judgment is not judging a person's soul. We'll explore the classical view of morality and find that it's not merely a set of guiding principles for theoretical situations—it is an entire way of life.

MAKE

When I arrived as your bishop five years ago, I laid out a vision of catechesis, evangelization, and faith into action, emphasizing that a thriving Church is one where we truly know, love, and serve God. The big question remains: how do we actually do that? How do we move from just having a vision to putting it into real practice?

This is why I wrote the pastoral letter MAKE! and launched it just this month. It builds on Bishop Conlon's 2018 pastoral letter GO!, which draws on the Great Commission in Matthew's Gospel (Matthew 28): "Go and make disciples." MAKE! vulnerably reflects my heart. I love Jesus, and I want you to love Him too. It expresses my desire to give everyone a practical, loving roadmap to becoming disciples and making disciples, with a hands-on guide for passing our faith from one generation to the next.

Right before publishing it, I have to admit that I was filled with some self-doubt. I wondered, "There are so many other issues I could be writing about: the Eucharist, Pro-Life concerns, Vocations, Care of Creation, Immigration, Violence, and more. Is making disciples really the best topic?"

The Holy Spirit answered that question for me last month during a meeting at the headquarters of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops \(USCCB\) in Washington, D.C. Our committee was presented with the results of a large national survey of thousands of priests across the country. One question asked, "Out of all the issues in the world, which one most needs to be addressed by our Church?" The number one response from priests nationwide was clear: passing the faith on to the next generation.

The statistician went on to explain that this does not mean priests consider the other issues unimportant. Rather, they recognize that if we do not have people in the pews, if this generation and the next are not alive in their faith and participating in the life of the Church, then all of those other issues will eventually lose their voice in the Church. We first need to form disciples who are rooted in Christ, so that they in turn can carry the mission forward and address these other urgent concerns with faith and courage.

This is why MAKE! is so important. It is not just another document, and it is certainly not meant to sit on a shelf and collect dust. It is a living invitation to every Catholic in our diocese to move from simply managing decline to boldly embracing mission. We all want to belong to a Church that is alive, thriving, and centered on the salvation of souls. That future depends on how seriously we take this call to be made into disciples so that we can go out and make disciples.

The letter offers a clear path: conversion, confession, communion, commission, all held together by prayer. These are not abstract concepts but real, concrete steps that anyone can begin today. I both invite and urge you to read the letter. And then read it again. Pray over it, discuss it with your family, your friends, or a group in your parish. Choose one small action and begin.

If each of us takes this seriously, with the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the Diocese of Joliet can become a Church on fire with love for Jesus. Boldly, I want our diocese to be the most evangelizing diocese in the country, not out of competition, but because I love Jesus, and I want you to love Him and be saved through Him too. This is our time, and this is our mission. Let us first be disciples, men and women of all ages who know, love, and serve Jesus, so that together we can go out with joy and courage to MAKE disciples, starting now.

Our Lady of Fatima wishes to visit your Home

Thank you to the parish families who have welcomed our Lady of Fatima into their homes.
