The Pastor's Corner...

Preparing for the Lord's Day

Falling in love at a young age, especially in high school or college, is a common experience of many. In such a state of mind, a person usually wants to show himself or herself in the best possible light, in regards both to appearance and character. When getting ready to go on a date, people usually dress better than average, use cologne or perfume, comb or fix their hair, and enhance their facial beauty. Just the expectation alone of this meeting with their loved one is exciting. Sometimes such excitement is difficult to hide from family members, friends and even strangers. People in love constantly think about their loved ones. They want to speak with them and talk about them to others.

Once a week, we all have a date with our God at Sunday Mass. We are with God as we hear His Words. We worship Him, adore Him, and are in communion with Him. We are very close to Him, especially when we receive Holy Communion which is He himself. During Sunday Mass, we don't have a monologue – the Lord speaking to us. In fact, during Sunday Mass, we have a true dialogue – we are speaking with God loudly, together with others, and privately, in the depth of our hearts.

Although this date is obviously different from other dates, should we not prepare ourselves for this Sunday meeting as we prepare for the other dates? Should we not dress a little bit more elegantly, more festively for our Sunday meeting with God? Should we not polish our shoes and brush our hair? Above all, should we not prepare ourselves spiritually? As we longingly wait for the date with a person that we fall in love with, should we not also longingly wait for the person we will meet during Sunday Mass – our loving God? Of course, we cannot see God, and we cannot interact with Him exactly as we do with human beings. But God is a real person. He is a person who loves us and invites us to love Him as well.

As we work the entire week, from time to time, we may want to take a break and plan a weekend trip, especially on Sunday. We look for a Mass that will fit and suit our plans in the best way. We also may check the Mass schedule of the local Catholic churches at our destination. Great! We should be praised for our diligence in fulfilling the Sunday obligation. But at the same time, we must ask ourselves whether the Mass -- the meeting with the risen Lord -- is really the center of our Sunday activity or, maybe, it is something in addition, something only to fulfill the obligation. Although it is true that planning to fit in a Mass during our trip is a logical and smart decision that is also very educational to our children and our entire family, maybe the reverse should be considered: planning the trip around the Mass. Is the Mass not the date with the Lord, our creator and savior, adviser, supporter, and a person who loves us so much and leads us to Himself? So, then all activities and entertainment should rather revolve around Sunday Mass as planets around the sun.

As we grow in years and spiritually, such an understanding of the Sunday Eucharist can and must become more and more predominant. If not, we are losing a lot of its meaning, beauty and graces that it provides. As Sunday is the center of the week, Mass is the center of Sunday, and it radiates its power throughout each day and every hour of the entire week.

Thank you!

I would like to inform you that I completed the annual 10K Independence Run at Montrose Harbor in Chicago on October 27, which gathered 2,000 participants, with a time of 1 hour and 6 min. Although I was slower than last year by two minutes, I am very happy because my run raised $1,545 for the youth ministry mission trip and youth conference. My deep thanks to all donors who supported my effort and also thanks to the 20 participants from our parish who participated in the run and walk, under our group's name "Corpus Christi Parish in Carol Stream". Two of these participants (Peter Jankowski, John Ligas) ran the 10K with a time of under one hour. Thank you all!

Next weekend, our parish will take up a second collection to support seminarian formation. Mary Immaculate, living tabernacle of the Divinity, where the eternal Wisdom lies hidden to be adored and served by angels and men; Queen of heaven and of earth, beneath whose sway are subject all things that are lower than God; Patroness of the United States of America, sorrowful and mindful of our own sinfulness and the sins of our nation, we come to thee, our refuge and hope. Knowing that our country cannot be saved by our own works, and mindful of how much our nation has departed from the ways of thy Son, we humbly ask that thou wouldst turn thine eyes upon our country to bring about its conversion. We consecrate to thee the integrity of the upcoming election and its outcome, so that what is spiritually and morally best for the citizens of our country may be accomplished, and that all of those who are elected would govern according to the spiritual and moral principles which will bring our nation into conformity with the teachings of thy Son. O Mary Immaculate, pray for us. Amen.

Hand-Carved Olive Wood Gifts from the Holy Land

November 9th & 10th

Please take a look at those beautiful artifacts.

Proceeds benefit Catholic schools in the Holy Land.

Did you know that 600 Christian families living in Bethlehem are completely dependent on carving olive wood figurines for their livelihood? The recent clashes in the Middle East have stopped the tourism industry in Bethlehem, causing most of those families serious harm in earning their living and forcing many of them to leave their homeland. Emptying the land of Christ from Christians can have tragic consequences on the Holy sites. Issam, from the “Star of Bethlehem” group came to the United States with a mission to help those families by selling their beautiful religious handicrafts. The cost of goods goes to benefit the Christian carvers to keep them working in the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, the profit from sales goes directly to the needy Catholic schools and clinics in the Holy Land. The Star of Bethlehem has been approved by many bishops and dioceses of Jerusalem. Please show your generosity to our Brothers and Sisters in the Holy Land.

Prayer for Vocations

For our married couples, strengthen their covenant.
For our religious sisters, surround them with Your love.
For our priests, support them as they guide.
For our parents, sustain them in Your grace.

For our religious brothers, draw them nearer to You.
For our consecrated singles, be everything they need.
For those discerning, be with them as they journey.
Amen.

St. Charles Borromeo | Feast Day November 4

St. Charles Borromeo (1538 - 1584) is most known for living during the time of the Protestant Reformation and helped influence reform of the whole Church during the final years of the Council of Trent.

Although St. Charles Borromeo belonged to nobility, he greatly desired to serve the Church. In 1559, his uncle was elected Pope Pius IV. He made Charles cardinal-deacon and administrator of the Archdiocese of Milan. At the time, Charles was a simple student, but because of his intellectual qualities, he was assigned several important offices connected with the Vatican. After the death of his brother, he decided to become a priest and was ordained at age 25. Soon after he became bishop of Milan.

Quietly working behind the scenes, St. Charles Borromeo is credited with keeping the Council of Trent in session and encouraging the pope to renew the Council in 1562, after its 10-year suspension. Afterwards, he devoted his time to serving in the Archdiocese of Milan.

Among his most important actions during his life, St. Charles Borromeo established seminaries, colleges, and communities for the education of candidates for holy orders. His emphasis on Catholic learning greatly increased the preparation of men for the priesthood and benefited their congregations. He died at the age of 46.
