Dear Brothers and Sisters,

1. On November 1, we commemorated All Saints Day - all good people who in an extraordinary way fulfilled the precepts of the Gospel. They are in Heaven with God, the angels, and “a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue” who stand “before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands.” (Revelation 7:9). They are praying for us and cheering us on to eternal happiness; they are our supporters who wish that all people be with them and God in Heaven.

2. The following day, November 2 – All Souls Day - we prayed in a special way for our departed brothers and sisters. The Church believes that our prayers can support those who, although saved, still have to purify themselves in Purgatory in order to stand holy and blameless before God in Heaven. The Church encourages us to pray for them and, if possible, to visit their graves, especially in the Octave of All Saints Day, from November 1 - 8. We can visit a cemetery and pray for the deceased, even if no one from our families or friends is buried there. Prayer for those who passed away, especially for those we do not know, is a powerful act of Christian charity. Let us continue to pray for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, especially throughout the month of November – the month of all Holy Souls.

- All Souls' Day

3. Last Sunday, October 30, two dozen parishioners and friends of our parish and I represented Corpus Christi Parish in an annual Independence Run at Montrose Harbor, north of downtown Chicago. Nearly 1,700 runners - adults and children - ran either 10 kilometers, 5 kilometers or walked 5 kilometers. It was a very family oriented and friendly celebration. I am glad to announce that our parishioner, 16 year-old Helen Jankowski, was the fastest female in the 10k run with a time of 42 minutes and 4 seconds. I was just... behind... her...

☺ with a time of... 1 hour 5 minutes and 53 seconds (264th overall). As you know, my run this year was also a fundraiser for our church's Youth Ministry program. Your sponsorship of my run raised $1,530 towards our youth week long mission trip this upcoming summer. Thank you very much for your support!

In Christ,

Fr. Mark Jurzyk

Gain a Plenary Indulgence First Week of November

An indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed. The indulgence is plenary each day from the 1st to the 8th of November; on other days of the year it is partial.

There are plenty of opportunities to seek plenary indulgences especially for the poor souls. We should take special advantage of this time, perchance to bring eternal peace and joy to suffering souls. To obtain the plenary indulgence the faithful must receive the sacrament of confession, either eight days before or after the pious act is performed, receive Holy Communion on that day and recite prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father.

(one Our Father and one Hail Mary is the minimum, but any other additional prayers may be added)

Knights of Columbus Family time: November / December Recommended Books and Movies

4.1 MOVIE: Roommates – Starring Peter Falk, D.B. Sweeney, and Julianne Moore

Rocky Holczek (Peter Falk) is a cantankerous and endearing 77-years of age Polish American baker who adopts his young grandson Michael (D.B. Sweeney). “Family takes care of family.” The humorous, engaging, and moving story follows Rocky raising Michael from grade school age to adulthood (a 30-year span), including Michael’s own marriage to Beth (Julianne Moore). Michael and Beth then have two children before events once again call forth the wisdom, love, and witness of Rocky.

4.2 MOVIE: Bells of St. Mary – Starring Bing Crosby, Ingrid Bergman, and Henry Travers

One of the most beloved Catholic movies of all times, “Bells of St. Mary” is a sequel to the “Going My Way” movie. Father O’Malley (Bing Crosby) is transferred to St. Mary’s where he has some conflicts with the school’s principal Sister Mary (Ingrid Bergman). Even though both have loving and prayerful hearts as well as sharp minds, they have some little and big disagreements, including about the future of and how to run the school. The old school and parish need drastic and costly rejuvenation, but the sisters running the school are hoping for a miracle property donation from a businessman (Henry Travers) who has conflicting business interests.

4.3 BOOK: Saint John Paul the Great: His Five Loves – Jason Evert

The book is split into two parts: The first five chapters give charming, informative, and inspiring biographical details of his life. Some details about the depth of his prayer life and sanctity may surprise even those who are quite familiar with Saint John Paul II. The second set of five chapters explain his five loves in splendid and edifying detail: Young People, Human Love, The Eucharist, The Virgin Mary, and The Cross.

Bishop Hicks' Column

November 2022: Our Baptismal Duty

Recently, many of us tuned in to watch the events surrounding the passing of Queen Elizabeth II, the longest reigning British monarch. In the United States, the existence of a royal family may be somewhat of a foreign concept in our political system that prefers democratically elected officials. Yet, with some curiosity, many of us cast our gaze across the pond to capture a glimpse of the new King Charles III receiving the royal scepter.

In the Catholic Church, we tap into “royal language” with titles like “Queen of Heaven” and the “Prince of Peace.” During this month, we will come to the end of our liturgical year when the universal Church boldly proclaims Christ as King of the Universe on November 20.

Pope Pius XI instituted the celebration of “Christ the King” in 1925 with his encyclical Quas primas (“In the first”) to respond to growing secularism and atheism in the world. From the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops: “This solemnity reminds us that while governments come and go, Christ reigns as King forever. During the early twentieth century, in Mexico, Russia and some parts of Europe, militantly secularistic regimes threatened not just the Catholic Church and its faithful, but civilization itself.”

Almost 100 years after the solemnity’s inception, there is still a need to promote the message of this feast day. We do not have to look far to see blatant attacks on religious liberty and increasing secularism. It is in this context that atheists are proactively trying to convert vulnerable minds to not believing in God. Still, there are others who plant a deceptive message by saying, “If you insist on believing in God, at least do so by being only spiritual and not religious within the Church.”

While we embrace Christ as our king, we also need to remind ourselves that he is a very different kind of king. Instead of donning a crown of gold, Jesus wears a crown of thorns, and instead of ruling with arrogance or revenge, he utters decrees of mercy and forgiveness: “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing” (Luke 23:34). Jesus rules by being a good shepherd who rejects loftiness and domination. Instead, he serves, as opposed to seeking to be served. He calls all those who follow him to join his ministry of service, humility, forgiveness and charity.

During the past few years, there has been a popular streaming series named “The Crown.” In the first season, there is a poignant scene in which King George VI reminds his son-in-law, Philip, of his duty, especially toward the new queen, Elizabeth II. “You understand, the titles, the dukedom. They’re not the job. She is the job! She is the essence of your duty. Loving her. Protecting her.”

For those of us who have been called to minister in the Church, I think this quote is quite appropriate. It applies not exclusively to bishops, clergy and religious, but to every Catholic who is baptized and is a missionary disciple of Jesus: “The Church is our duty. Loving her. Protecting her.”

In the rite of baptism for children, the parents listen to the following words before the water is poured: “You have asked to have your child baptized. In doing so, you are accepting the responsibility of training him or her in the practice of the faith. It will be your duty to bring him or her up to keep God’s commandments as Christ taught us, by loving God and our neighbor.” When parents are asked, “Do you clearly understand what you are undertaking?” the affirmative answer they give at that moment is hopefully repeated daily and throughout the course of their lives.

To accomplish this, I continue to invite us to follow my vision for this diocese of Catechesis, Evangelization and Faith into Action. For if we truly know Jesus, love Jesus and serve others like he taught us, then we are doing our baptismal duty. As we strive to keep God at the center of our lives, the Church and the universe, may Christ the King live and reign today and always. †

The King of the world will raise us up to live again forever.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

BE STRONG IN FAITH

Today's readings present us with extreme examples of faithfulness and reliance on the promise of eternal life. Most of us will never be tortured because of our Christian faith, although people are martyred every year because of their commitment to Christ. While we may never face bodily harm as Christians, there are consequences to living as a disciple. We might be ridiculed or harassed. We might find it necessary to call out injustice in the workplace or our local city, and such witness may cost us our jobs and friendships. What are we prepared to do as followers of our Lord? Today, we are encouraged to be strong in faith, secure in the belief that when we endure in Christ, we may look forward to life in eternity with God.

THE APPLE OF GOD'S EYE

Any who have a relationship with a child—parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, special friends—know the power of love it is possible to feel for another. It is not that the child is incapable of doing wrong; we know they can and will. Rather, their mistakes do not change our love for them. In fact, the love makes us want what is best for them. Often, we can see their potential with greater perspective than they themselves can. They're the apple of our eye. We are the apple of God's eye, beloved children of our Lord. God knows (God really knows) that we can and will fail. We fall short of the potential that God is certain we have. Yet God does not cease to love us and to call us to live as God's own in the world.

HIDDEN IN THE SHADOW OF GOD'S WINGS

Certain that we are held closely by God frees us to live the challenge of the gospel, to give our lives for the sake of others. We will be tempted to take the easy route and ignore the voice of the Lord, listening instead to the call of wealth, power, acceptance, status, and earthly security. Today's readings remind us that we can face temptation, secure that we are hidden in the shadow of God's wings, strengthened and guarded from evil by our Lord Jesus Christ. What challenging thing are you called to do today as a follower of Jesus? About what must you take a stand? What might be the consequences of discipleship at this time in your life? "May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and the endurance of Christ."

Parish Mission Statement

*A Community of Christian believers
Who embrace the Word of God,
Who proclaim its message to all,
With a welcoming spirit
As prayerful and sacramental people
Empowered by unity,
Inspired by the Holy Spirit,
We extend ourselves
Seeking to recognize the needs of others
And responding with compassion by Gratefully sharing our blessings.
We gather as
THE BODY OF CHRIST
To celebrate and become a source of hope
And inspiration to all.*
