The Pastor's Corner...

God Has a Plan to Save Us

Last Sunday during my homily, I compared God's plan for human beings to a design project for building a house. It is the design of the architect that gives the possibility of building a house that is safe, beautiful and long-lasting. Without an intelligently designed project, materials for a building are simply piles of materials amassed in the same area. Only having a project with a specific design enables workers to assemble them in a proper sequence to form a building.

I mentioned that the conclusion of the world, as was predicted and described by Jesus in the Gospel of Mark is nothing that we, Christians, should be afraid of. The opposite is true. Namely, Jesus' prediction of the conclusion of history is in fact a demonstration of the Divine Project regarding us. The individual human being's life and the life of the created world as we experience it, has its limits and cannot continue indefinitely. The Son of Man's coming at the end of time reveals God's act of salvation, not condemnation. It is also the final and ultimate manifestation of God's saving action for us.

God's Divine Project, like a project for a good house, helps us understand that we are here not accidentally. We are not created by mistake or by chance, like winning the lottery. It tells us that we are wanted, loved and part of the plan, a good plan for us individually and for the entire human race. It helps us to recognize a sense of logic in this world and that the world is not heading towards some unknown direction but to a specific goal, a specific conclusion and fulfillment.

In this Sunday's Gospel, we see Jesus again, the Son of Man who, before his glorious appearance at the end of time, first made himself known as King in his passion. Up to this point, Jesus always slipped away when people tried to make him king, obviously not understanding who He really was. But now, as He approaches His crucifixion, He can and must reveal who He is: the origin and the goal of the world. In a dialogue with Pilate, Jesus openly confirms "I am a king" because He "came into the world to testify about the truth." This truth is the Father's love for the world, which the Son represents in His life, death and Resurrection. The Cross is the proof that the Father loves us, His creation, so much that He permits even the crucifixion to happen. The inscription on the Cross, "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews," is written in three key languages of the ancient world – Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. Not only is Jesus King of the Jews, but He is also the King of all – the King of Kings and the Lord of lords. This proclaims the truth of God's love to everyone, and forever.

Today's celebration reveals the mysterious, but logical and beautiful plan of our salvation. . Discovering this design more and more deeply should lead us – God's children – to authentic awe and sincere worship. It encourages us to respond to this plan with a life that corresponds to the love that God offers us.

In Christ,

Fr. Mark Jurzyk

This Advent, join Fr. Mike Schmitz in a journey through the daily readings as he confronts our doubts and reveals God's love with app-exclusive daily video reflections and scripture passages.

Discover who God is, who we are, and how we are made worthy to stand in his presence.

What if you knew that December 25th Christmas Day was the day that you were going to die? The way we live Advent would have to change. We'd have to live with intentionality. We'd have to live it with purpose. We'd have to live it with grace. Too often, we live life by "default". We forget that we are on a journey to an eternal destination of joy that we were made for. We are burdened by fears and questions: what if I am not worthy? What if I am not enough?

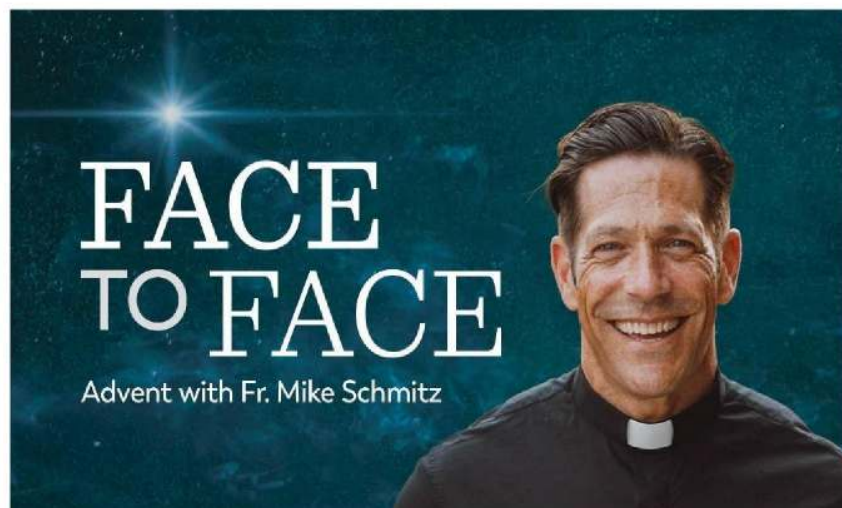

Live Advent differently this year. Prepare to meet God, face to face. Only available on the Ascension App. Download it for free here:

COMMEMORATING 75 YEARS OF CATECHESIS,
EVANGELIZATION AND SERVICE

Novena of Grace with St. Francis Xavier

From November 25 through December 3, members of our diocese will have the opportunity to participate in a nine-day novena of prayer to St. Francis Xavier, the patron of the Diocese of Joliet.

DAY 1 NOVEMBER 25

Lord, each day you give me new life, new graces, new opportunities to feel your presence. Give me the gift of attentiveness to notice you in the people and your creation which surround my life; that I may grow in faith, and hope, and love. Amen.

DAY 2 NOVEMBER 26

Father, each day you show me the love of a parent for its child: watchful of my every step, eager for me to thrive; you delight in my happiness and console me in my sadness. May the constant love in which you enfold me give me the confidence to show that same love to friend and foe, family and stranger, alike. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

DAY 3 NOVEMBER 27

Father, you speak to me in the silence and in the empty spaces of my life. Give me ears to hear your voice in stillness and in the gentle breeze; eyes to see your presence in things that seem so insignificant at the time. Free me from the relentless whirl of activity, from the obsessions which limit me and snatch away my freedom to answer your call. Like St Francis, may I too become a pilgrim, called to walk the path you set before me, wherever it may lead but always safe in the knowledge that Christ walks beside me unseen. Amen.

DAY 4 NOVEMBER 28

Lord, before I ever came into being you knew me and loved me. You have knit me together the way I am, and given me life and laughter, friends and the faces of kind strangers, and a world of wonder and new discovery. Grant me the freedom and the courage to discover you anew each day in the people I meet, in the places I go, in the sounds I hear and the things I see. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

DAY 5 NOVEMBER 29

Lord Jesus, it is so easy to be tempted as you were tempted in the desert; to make poor decisions for quick gains and satisfaction; to turn the wonderful gifts of your generosity towards unworthy and selfish ends. Give me, day by day, the same Spirit of strength with which you faced down those desert temptations of power, wealth and honour; that my desires and motives, my words and actions, may always be for the greater glory of God, my Lord. Amen.

DAY 6 NOVEMBER 30

Father, as I look back on this day, there are so many teeming thoughts, such a babble of words, and such a blur of activity, that it is difficult to see your gentle and faithful presence amid it all. Show yourself to me today, and every day. Amen.

DAY 7 DECEMBER 1

God our Father, praise to you! I am surrounded by so many good people, if only I take the time to notice: people who speak your word of compassion and kindness; people who act to give reality to your justice and reconciliation; people whose lives are good seed growing in rich soil. Give me, too, the grace to live in your Spirit, and to be your presence for those I meet as I go about the business of my day. Amen.

DAY 8 DECEMBER 2

Father, you are entire goodness and you are goodness for me. Creator of all things, who hold all things in being for me, give me faith in you and in myself, your creation. Amen.

DAY 9 DECEMBER 3

God our Father, as St Francis Xavier travelled to the ends of the earth, impelled by love of Christ and afire with his good news, give me the trust and the grace to base all that I do entirely on you, safe in the knowledge that you raise up the lowly and fill them with good things. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
